

ISBN 978-81-934658-1-3 US $ 30

Buddhist Analysis of Mind is a sincere attempt to explain every term and concept of Buddhist Philosophy, Psychology and Cognitive Science in the modern philosophical language in readable English. Also, the book draws parallels with Plato, Aristotle, Kant, Husserl and other philosophers for better appreciation of the complex concepts of the Buddhists discussed in the most original and primary *sources. Further, the book reveals the ontological position of the Buddhists which explains with focus on the study of mind by way of the analyses of consciousness (citta) into of 121 types; psychic factors (cetasika) into 52 types of; discussion on Buddhist cognitive theory (citta-vīthi); and concepts (paññatti) with diagrams and illustrations.

Thus the book is highly useful for a modern philosopher, linguist, psychologist and cognitive scientist in addition to a Buddhologist

Book your order to SINERU INTERNATIONAL PUBLICATIONS

www.sinerufoundation.com

Email : sinerufoundation@gmail.com